Consideration of the personal data falling within the scope of the request

Guidance from the Information Commissioner's office states that personal data only includes information relating to natural persons who:

- can be identified or who are identifiable, directly from the information in question; or
- who can be indirectly identified from that information in combination with other information.

Description of personal data/issue(s) under consideration:

Lawfulness

Do either of the two lawful basis below, which allow for the disclosure of personal data, apply? No

- Consent: This applies when the data subject(s) clear consent exists, allowing the department to disclose personal data falling within the scope of this request.
- Legitimate interests: This applies when disclosure is necessary for the department's legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party that overrides the data subject(s) rights and freedoms, particularly their right to privacy.

Conclusion
