

Request and Response

1. How many instances of the Microsoft Windows 7 Operating System are currently in operation across your entire network? How many devices such as kiosks, laptops etc are still running Windows 7?

There are 463 devices running the Microsoft Windows 7 Operating System on our network.

2. How many instances of the Microsoft Windows XP Operating System are currently in operation across your entire network? How many devices such as kiosks, laptops etc are still running Windows XP?

There are no active devices running the Microsoft Windows XP Operating System on our network.

3. Who is the officer responsible for maintaining and delivering legacy applications to all your users?

This information is not held. There is no single officer responsible for maintaining and delivering legacy applications to our users as many are operated across different Northern Ireland Government Departments.