Hi

Yes – these are questions rather than a specific request for information under FOI therefore we can reply as line of business.

Morning,

Please see reply received from requester regarding the addendum to DOF/2022-0001. Can you advise how you wish to proceed? Should a new FOI be logged or are you content to respond as a follow on to the original response?

Thanks,

Dear DoF FOI,

This seems a highly unusual response. For one, you've reattached documents already sent in the original reply. You're also saying that Stonewall couldn't have had input into the documents, whilst the original documents clearly show the Stonewall steering group's comments being implemented. There is also the guidance provided by Stonewall which has been adhered to. Could you please clarify what meaningful distinction can be made between "Stonewall" and a Stonewall Steering Group following Stonewall guidance? How was the Steering Group formed, and does it include only NICS staff, or also representatives from Stonewall, or Stonewall partners The Rainbow Project, or any other external group?

Thank-you,

[REDACTED]
